Chelsea is diligent and resourceful. She is able to establish an immediate rapport and trust with her clients.

Chelsea Jensen is a litigator with experience in both the state and federal courts of Nevada. In her practice, Chelsea advocates for clients involved in intellectual property disputes, appellate matters, complex litigation, and bankruptcy proceedings. She has authored successful dispositive motions and has co-authored appellate briefs and writs. She has assisted in pre-trial work, including co-drafting emergency motions for preliminary injunctive relief and conducting discovery. She has also aided in trial preparation.

Chelsea currently volunteers with the Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada's Children's Attorneys Project. In that role, she represents children in dependency and adoption matters.

Prior to joining the firm, Chelsea clerked for the Honorable Richard F. Boulware and Honorable Larry R. Hicks, both of the United States District Court for the District of Nevada. As a clerk, Chelsea researched complex legal issues, drafted bench memorandums, and assisted in conducting multiple trials. She also previously served as a legal intern in the Fraud Unit of the Office of the Nevada Attorney General, where she assisted in drafting criminal complaints, guilty plea agreements and affidavits, and assisted in the preparation for preliminary hearings. In law school, Chelsea was a teaching assistant.
