

REAL ESTATE - ENVIRONMENTAL EXPERIENCE

Client Name: Real Estate - Environmental Experience

Real Estate - Environmental Experience

- Represented national insurance company against allegations that a construction defect caused mold growth and water intrusion.
- Represented property owner in class action suit involving allegations of groundwater contamination.
- Represented local dry cleaners, national hazardous water recycling company and multiple manufacturing companies in both Superfund and State equivalent litigation matters in Arizona, New Hampshire and California.
- Represented farms, national frozen food processing corporation and mining corporation in water rights litigations in Arizona and in California.
- Represented a variety of landowners (individuals, developers, manufacturers and chemical laboratories) in damages claims against former owners/operators of property and in defense of suits brought by other landowners.
- Represented a variety of clients in Clean Air Act, Clean Water Act, CERCLA, RCRA, storm water and state equivalent law enforcement actions dealing with EPA, state and local government authorities.